Bishop Wilton Hall

The clocks have been turned back and the weather has turned. Some brave souls are taking advantage of the flood lights and the all-weather surface to continue with their sporting activities.

Maintenance. Sadly, we have had a few issues with the heating system in the Hall and apologise to those who have been affected. We are happy to report that after some head scratching and a few attempts to fully understand the extent of the issue, all is now well.

The hedge on the north side of the field has been pruned. It was 10m tall in places. Now, thanks to Trevor Lee, the hedge will be much easier to maintain, and the aim is to keep it to a manageable 2.9m high. We also intend to plant trees to fill the gaps that have been left.

Events. November 3rd saw the Hall host its first Comedy Night. Five acts performed - each had a different theme - and all were hilarious. A good time was had by all. It was so well received that another event is planned in early 2024. Watch out for details.

Join us for a night of merriment and dancing on Saturday 6th January at our annual Ceilidh, this year we will be joined by the fantastic Alterego Ceilidh Band. This is a community event so tickets are free, but places will be limited - please email the village hall at bishopwiltonvillagehall@gmail.com or contact one of the Trustees to reserve your place. The bar will be open from 7:30pm so come along and get rid of those post-Christmas blues.

Hall Groups. We have some new groups using the Hall. These include one to one personal trainer sessions and Music Therapy. The Bishop Wilton Table Tennis Club continues to grow. Some of the members are now taking nationally recognised coaching courses which will add to the strength of the existing coaching team. In addition to the regular Wednesday evening sessions, social 'Bat & Chat' table tennis sessions for beginners aged 50+ will be held every Thursday at the Hall starting 18th January 2pm -3.30pm.

The football team continue to hold regular matches. The drainage work carried out on the field earlier in the year is helping keep the pitch in a playable condition.

We have a host of other users including Pilates, Tai Chi, Yoga, Gardening Club, Women's Institute, Craft Group, Friendship Group, Toddler Group and many more. All these groups rely on the support and participation of the community. Even if 'it is not your thing' you may know someone who is interested - so spread the word.

What's happening next.... When the weather permits, the Parish Council will be installing some outside gym equipment on the playing field. It will be located between the cricket scoreboard and the children's play area.

And finally. We are currently looking for a cleaner for approx. 1 hour per week to clean the main hall floor and some other bits, on a Tuesday morning. Please contact the Hall at the email address below if you are interested.

Afterglow

Short days ago,
a canvas of green
innocuous leaves,
anodyne trees
met the season of flame
in crimson dawning,
a wildfire burning
the burnish of Autumn

swatches of paint laid,
colour chart landscape
impressionist brush
daubs the field and the birch,
captured light
catch the eye,
a moment sublime

draw breath,
final burst
before the last gasp,
as glowing coals fade,
burnt from embers
to cinders
and ash.

Rainfall

Rainfall data for September and October 2023.

Rainfall for September 2023 64.5mm.

Average rainfall September (2003-2023 Bishop Wilton) 55.3mm.

Rainfall for October 2023 152.6mm.

Average rainfall October (2003-2023 Bishop Wilton) 73.8mm.

Total rainfall January-October 2023 760.9mm.

Average rainfall January- October (2003-2022 Bishop Wilton) 604.6mm

September 2023 was slightly wetter than average. October, however, was the wettest October I have recorded in 21 years of recording the rainfall. The 152.6 mm I recorded was more than twice the average of 73.8 mm and surpassed the previous highest total of 130.6mm recorded in 2019.

The total rainfall so far for 2023 is 760.9mm (around 30.5") which is 155mm (6") more than the average.

The Bishop Wilton Advent Trail Map is back by popular demand!

In the run up to Christmas, 24 magical windows or displays are going to be popping up throughout the village. Come and count down to the big day by following the map to see the wonderful efforts! There will also be a hunt for the kids; when they have found all the symbols, they can hand their map into the shop and collect their treat.

Displays not on the map will add to the merriment and be appreciated by everyone. All maps and treasure hunt sheets can be found in the shop. Enjoy!

Our Pudsey Push was a great success! Children were sponsored to walk a mile pushing or pulling a teddy. It was great to hear children encouraging each other to complete the challenge and we are still collecting the sponsorship money, all of which will be donated to 'Children in Need'.

The trip to the Yorvik Centre and Archaeological dig site in York, mentioned in the previous edition of The Parish Pump, was an excellent learning experience to bring history to life.

We held our Remembrance service by the War Memorial at St Edith's Church. The children shared some moving poems, prayers and readings, before placing their poppies.

We have lots of plans for Christmas activities this year. There is our Christmas Performance of 'Bethlehem B&B' on Tuesday 12th December at 2.00pm and on Wednesday 13th December at 6.00pm and our Christingle and Carol service at St Edith's Church at 2.00pm on Thursday 21st December. Everyone is welcome to join us. In school, we also have a Christmas dinner, a Christmas Craft afternoon with parents and friends, a Surprise Fair and a Christmas party to look forward to.

Our Stay and Play sessions have moved and everyone with a baby or toddler is welcome to join us on Wednesday mornings during term time, for as much of the session as they would like. There is time to enjoy a chat and a cuppa while children can explore and play in our exciting indoor and outdoor areas. Just come along and join us in our happy and friendly setting, between 9.30am and 11.00am.

Bishop Wilton WI

Bishop Wilton WI welcomes women of all ages. We are a friendly group, so why not come to a meeting as a guest and see what we're about and consider joining us?

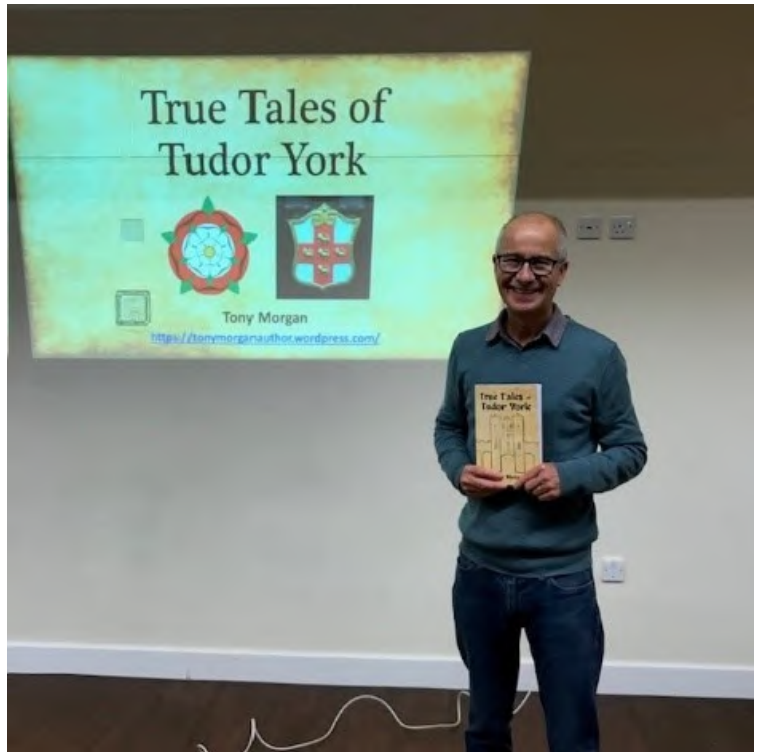

On 4 December members will enjoy a Christmas meal at The Shire and on 8 January 2024 we will welcome the New Year in by singing along with Anna Sargeant.

October's meeting saw the welcome return of Tony Morgan to regale us with 'True Tales of Tudor York'. Tony has a huge enthusiasm for his subject and offered some fascinating snippets into the relationship between Tudor monarchs and the city. Did you know for example that Elizabeth I never visited York and in fact probably didn't travel further north than Peterborough! Tony has written a number of historical novels about York and all profits from the sale of these goes St Leonard's Hospice: <https://tonymorganauthor.wordpress.com/>

November's meeting also saw the return of previous speakers Kathleen and Chris Barnett in a compelling and richly illustrated talk about the life and work of Dame Virginia McKenna. This traced the life of the actress and in particular how the experience of working on the film Born Free with her husband Bill Travers inspired them to set up the Born Free Foundation in 1984. The aim of the charity is to stop the exploitation of both wild and captive animals. It wants to see the end of zoos and wild animals being kept as pets. At 92 Virginia is still an active campaigner.

Please join us for the next Coffee, Cakes and Books on 2 December from 10am-12pm at the Hall.

ANNUAL MEMBERS' MEETING

Our 4th Annual Members' Meeting was held in Bishop Wilton Village Hall on Thursday 23rd November at 7.30pm. The committee presented a review of last year's performance - overall another successful year! Thanks were given to all the members, volunteers and local customers who made this possible. Recent trading results from July onwards this year have however not been as positive. Plans to address this were discussed. Sue Bond, Emma Stamford and David Gaskin have come off the Committee and were thanked for all their work. David opted to stand again alongside two new members - Jo Denton and Deri Reid-Thomas. All three were successfully voted on to the Committee. It's never too late to become a Shop member - look out for details in our Christmas newsletter.

A huge well done to all the staff team and children for celebrating our school and showcasing how we live.

Solar Panels @Bugthorpe

We are excited to announce that the Governing Body have agreed and committed to the installation of solar panels at both schools. The Council have tested our energy-usage and have priced up the cost of installation as well as the expected savings and payback. The jobs are out for tender with the Council so hopefully we will have them in place within 2024!

Lights on the Village Green @Bugthorpe

Last year was wonderfully Christmassy. A dark, cold night and a few carols around the tree. This year, we are hoping to sing a few more carols seen as though we had such a fantastic turn out. Join us on Friday 1st December from 5:45pm on the Village Green. We will turn the lights on with a countdown at 6pm and sing before a mince pie and refreshments at the Village Hall.

A delightful way to start the festivities.

Life at Bishop Wilton Shop in the 1960s by Sue Lecuas

After my dad left the RAF he decided to go into retail with the Co-operative Society. He had various roles in different parts of the country but at length he became Manager of the Pocklington store. In 1957 he was offered the Co-op shop at Bishop Wilton, which came with a house next door. I was nearly ten and my brother was five. We loved the house, which had so much space compared to anywhere we'd lived before. There was a huge garden and an orchard and there were also lots of places to roam, both in and around the village. Many a day we'd go off with other children to play in the hills, taking a jam sandwich and a bottle of water. Family life was always busy. We all helped Dad in the shop when we were needed. In those days the contents of the shop came in bulk. Butter and lard had to be cut into slabs, weighed, and wrapped in greaseproof paper. Dried goods, such as fruit, flour and sugar were weighed too, and poured into brown paper bags. At the back of the shop was a marble-topped fitting where Dad sliced meat, including bacon and the ham that he first had to bone. This took time and skill and was very demanding. Mum helped with cleaning and displaying the goods. There was a 'penny corner' where children spent ages choosing their favourites out of liquorice, sherbet dips, gob stoppers, bulls' eyes, etc. I used to serve in the shop but changing money was not my strong point! The till was a bit like Arkwrights in 'Open All Hours' and it was very scary! In winter we delivered in and around the village on a sledge or a bike with a big basket on the front, which was very heavy to steer. There were seven farms in the village and we delivered huge packs of chicken feed by sledge, which was extremely hard work. The winters were much colder then, with a lot of snow. In bad winter weather we spent most days sledging in the Megginsons' field. My mum was a great knitter, and our house must have had the biggest selection of balaclavas in every colour: not a good look though!

At Christmas Dad created a special display of items you couldn't get at other times of the year, such as chestnuts and large festive boxes of Milk Tray. Customers would come in for just one thing and not be able to resist buying something from the display. I remember beautiful Jaffa oranges that tasted fantastic. Nowadays you can buy oranges all the year round, but nothing tastes better than those oranges did. Herris Fisher made a large pan on a long handle so Dad could roast chestnuts on the fire - no central heating then - they were wonderful! When I could drive Dad wanted me to deliver to outlying farms and villages. He once sent me to the farm at Bugthorpe to get six dozen eggs. Unfortunately, I hit the farm gate and arriving home said 'Dad, I have some good news and some bad news. Good news, car ok. Bad news, all the eggs have broken.' That smell lingered for months! Both my parents were involved with the village. Dad and Mr Hobbs the headmaster started a youth club in the old village hall and donated a cup for the best Show exhibit by a child. Mum was in the WI, the WRVS and the Red Cross, and her great joy was flower arranging. The community was special. We often found things left on our back doorsteps: eggs, vegetables, fruit. Mum used to say we were 'living on the Parish.' Happy memories.

A Wilton Childhood Part Two Norman Foster

As children growing up in the village we had several yearly landmarks that we looked forward to. Christmas was the big one, of course, but others were interspersed through the year. The coach trip to Scarborough organised by the Church or Chapel, Bishop Wilton Show, potato picking and Bonfire night being the main examples. I vividly remember the Church trips. Going on it depended upon having enough stamps in a book. You got one stamp each Sunday that you attended St Edith's and presented your evidence to Rev Fawcett prior to the trip. There was a bit of a black market in these as someone with a nearly full book would hawk a couple of new stamps around in exchange for a Crunchie bar or some other form of young-person currency.

On the trip day, families would congregate near the Fleece Inn from around 0730 and await the arrival of three, four or sometimes five Bailey's buses. The old Bedford Duple coaches would crawl up Worsendale or Givendale hills to the top of the Wolds and get into Scarborough by about 1030 or 1100. They never broke down. The treat was to get on the bus driven by the boss, Jack Bailey, who always joked the whole way there. His banter was usually about mildly adult themes that us kids found naughtily amusing. He only stopped his chatter when it was our bus's turn to stop and welcome Rev Fawcett on board. The vicar would proceed up the aisle of the bus and hand out coins, usually two shillings or half a crown to us children. Once the Reverend had departed for the next bus the jokes continued. We would leave Scarborough about 5 or 6 o'clock and make our way back, always with a wonderful sing-song.

Tatie-picking was always in the half term holiday between September and Christmas. A great way of earning some money. I remember being around nine or ten and starting my picking career at a village farm owned by the dairyman, Bob Horner. We earned six shillings, 30p, for a day's work but it was supplemented by the "drinkings" of tea and sausage rolls in the morning and tea and apple pie or curd tart in the afternoon provided by Mrs Horner. You took your own lunch. Just as you were coming to the end of a row, a little grey Fergie tractor would speed up the next one spinning out hundreds more spuds. I remember that sinking feeling as this was done towards the end of the day when we were all tired. As I got older, I used to organise a tatie-picking gang and we would go off to a farm that paid best or had the best "drinkings". This was usually Cheesecake Wold, farmed by a lovely couple, Mr & Mrs Sherwood. Another attraction was that, as organising ganger, I got to drive the tractor.

Bonfire night was brilliant but more about that in another article. It was preceded by a wonderful northern phenomenon on November 4th - Mischief Night. This was when us kids could legitimately do things that would have got us a "clip-round-t'lug" any other time. Thinking about it, I remember a mate receiving such a "clip" when caught by PC Elwood. I can't remember the exact incident but it involved some barbed wire being placed strategically and the copper's shout of "I'll bloody-well barb wire thee!" Usually, our pranks were pretty harmless but they must have been annoying so apologies to anyone who had me knocking on a door and running off, or who had a window tapper* set up, or who woke up next morning in Vale Crescent to find that their gate had been swapped for someone else's.

*No idea who thought of the widow-tapper but it was an ingenious device consisting of a button hung from a pin stuck into a window frame which tapped when pulled by an amazingly long length of cotton while we hid. Devious children!

Fleece Inn Golf Club

Our final outing of the 2024 season took us to Cave Castle G.C. in South Cave. A first for many of us, but it certainly didn't disappoint - a well established parkland course with its own golf club complex within the Hotel grounds. The Hotel itself looks impressive and no doubt offers its guests the golf facilities. The day was overcast, quite mild and no rain. The course was surprisingly wet and quite muddy in patches, however buggies and trolleys were still allowed!!

The 18 hole course looked in good well maintained order - had just 3 par 3 holes, 3 par 5 holes, and the rest par 4 holes. The layout in places was a little "tight" with fairways criss crossing, but overall enjoyable and one to add to our list. This being our final outing the Championship would be decided - an average of each player's 3 best cards to decide the winner, and with 6 players with an average over 100 points it was going to be an exciting finish. In the end Luke Fenton turned out to be our Champion with an average best 3 cards of an impressive 114 points. Barrie Brigham holds the record for the most points with 119 in 2018.

Now the all important days scores:

1st David Stamp 35 pts

2nd Martin Butcher 32 pts decided on best 2nd nine holes

3rd Luke Fenton 32 points decided on best last six holes

4th Allan Aikman 32 points decided on best last six holes

Spot prizes:

Nearest the pin on par 3 holes

5th Hole Ian Jones

14th Hole Col Pollock

17th Hole Not Won

Nearest pin in 3 shots par 5 13th hole Ian Jones

Nearest pin in 2 shots par 4 18th hole Not Won

Following the Golf we enjoyed a meal of either Scampi and trimmings or Sausage and Mash; both were excellent. The prizes were then presented to the winners by one of our bar girls, in the tradition started by Colin Robinson, rounding off a very enjoyable day! The Fleece Golf Society is organised and run by volunteers so special thanks to Dave Stamp for booking the courses and organising the days to Graham Souter and Bob Sefton for the finances, and to the members volunteering to be the hosts for the days. Our days out are great fun - ask any of our members - so why not join us in 2024. All abilities most welcome.

CONGRATULATIONS TO OUR CLUB CHAMPION LUKE FENTON. SEE YOU ON THE TEE IN MAY 2024!

In 1999 at this time of the year Mike and I were in the Holy Land preparing for the Archbishop's pilgrimage that was to take place to mark the Millennium. There were surreal moments -like counting the inflatable Father Christmases in the shops on the Via Dolorosa, the way pilgrims remember Jesus carrying the cross on the way to Golgotha. But there were also disturbing moments. We got caught up in a standoff between Palestinian youths in a half built tower block as they threw stones at members of the Israeli defence force - young men too and not much older.

The terrible scenes of our TV screen of the unfolding tragedy in Gaza that followed the horrors of the Hamas incursion made us think of the Israeli and Palestinian guides and bus drivers who worked alongside us and each other during the pilgrimage and modelled how life could be, signs of hope.

Also, we cannot forget the ongoing tragedy in Ukraine which feels very close to home with local families from the war zone displaced by the conflict living locally.

But when we were in Israel all those years ago it was also the Jewish celebration of Hanukah or the Festival of Light. The nine branched candlestick, the Menorah, is used. The middle candle is lit and over the course of the eight days of the festival the other candles are lit from the one candle. It commemorates the rededication of the Temple in Jerusalem in 164 BCE. But with the festivities and special food it is a festival of hope, of light overcoming darkness. In November Hindus and Sikhs have the festival of Diwali which is also a time of celebration when good conquers evil and light overcomes darkness. In our Christmas celebrations we have the lighting of the Christingles celebrating the coming of Jesus as the light of the world.

We can sometimes forget in all the lovely tinsel clad fun of Christmas that Jesus came to earth during a time of occupation with the Romans in Jerusalem and life being really difficult for many people, and that he was born in poverty in a stable after a long journey so the his family could be counted in the census. But the heart of the Christmas message is that God comes alongside us to share our struggles but also to give each of us the courage to live a braver, more courageous life that seeks to make a difference. Whatever our faith or belief the Christmas story, the Hanukah candles and the lights of Diwali challenge us to bring light as a New Year begins, to love and as Ghandi said, "to be the change we want to see in the world". We can have hope even as we look at places of conflict but we all have our part to play in building a more inclusive, compassionate and light filled world.

St Edith's Church and Bishop Wilton Shop are joining forces again this year to enjoy carol-singing and festive refreshments. Our collection will be shared between St Edith's and Bishop Wilton School PTA. Singers and instrumentalists needed! Meet at 5.30pm outside the shop to go singing round some streets. We'll return to the shop at about 6.30 for more carols and mince pies. Please bring torches or lanterns. We will provide carol sheets. If you can't make the whole event you're welcome come for part of it. Let's enjoy some Christmas spirit and brighten up the longest night of the year! All welcome. For more details contact Susan Frost 368445.

St. Mary's Skirpenbeck

We continue to raise funds with a view to improve the fabric of our lovely, ancient building. There is some important work that needs addressing. To this end the PCC have approved the 5 yearly electrical inspection. This has not been completed for over 10 years. Hopefully, the results of the inspection will give us a good starting point for the improvement of the electrics in church, ensuring their safety! It was encouraging to meet with the electrician who said it was 'not too bad!'

We have our Nativity service scheduled for Saturday 23rd December at 2 pm. This was a great success last year with everyone thoroughly enjoying the service. Everyone is most welcome to attend this very joyous occasion - there will be mulled wine, tea, coffee and mince pies served after the service. All children are encouraged to come dressed up, ready to take part in the Christmas story.

Bishop Wilton Table Tennis Club

The club is flourishing with 24 members aged 10 to 80. We meet four times a week, playing league matches in the Ryedale Table Tennis League, coaching members and club nights on a Wednesday. Having obtained three tables already, we needed a good quality league match table. Councillor Leo Hammond recommended I speak with Kier Construction, known for helping in local communities. During communications with Kier

Construction it was clear they're impressed by what's been achieved at BWTT Club. In January we began with nothing, but have developed through hard work and internal fund raising into an established club, serving so many. Kier Construction is impressed by our future plans, including to introduce Table Tennis Englands TT Kidz programme, providing opportunities to children through table tennis. Consequently Kier Construction has generously donated a top of the range National League Table Tennis Table to us, costing £1,000. Thanks Leo for caring and for your advice and a huge thanks to Nichola and all at Kier Construction.

Thanks too to Viv and the village hall trustees. I attended a trustees meeting recently seeking advice and made requests; the trustees were welcoming and supportive.

It's exciting to have a team playing in the league, representing the village. Recently we hosted league leaders Amotherby. During an exciting match, we fought back from 5-3 down to draw 5-5, which left us in 2nd place, one point behind the leaders. We're a good side. It'll be a good season, maybe promotion! Next year we hope to have a second team. Select 'Fixtures & Results' from the menu of our website where you can follow progress. We've a mixture at the club, beginners to experienced players, offering something for everyone. Kevin will qualify as a coach soon. As a coach and club treasurer he's a tremendous asset, providing invaluable support. As a coach myself, I'm now training as a TTE Lead Coach.

In the summer we joined Amotherby TTC members as their guests for an exciting evening of table tennis. We're doing something similar with Wilberfoss soon. On 20th December we're holding a Christmas party. Although busy, we're assured Santa will attend. It'll be fun, refreshments, dressing up, games, prizes, music and table tennis of a Christmas partying kind!

Like any club we've ongoing costs. If you'd like to help raise funds for BWTT Club it's easy, you don't need to be a member, it won't cost you anything. Visit the website easyfundraising.org.uk, when asked what cause you wish to support select 'Bishop Wilton Table Tennis Club'. Then whenever you shop online, do so through the easyfundraising app, the retailer will donate to BWTT Club. You'll pay the same price as before, or even receive a discount, but we'll receive a donation. Some members have raised hundreds of pounds for us in this way. It's easy, free and benefits our club and community.

If you're interested in joining us, come along on a Wednesday or contact me or any committee member. Visit our website for membership details.

Fisher's fuel pump

Painting by Bob Crow of Bishop Wilton's only petrol pump at Fisher's Agricultural Engineers.

Where the pump stands in the painting is now the entrance to the two new houses built for Mike & Elaine Brigham and Pam and John Ibbotson.

Out of the painting to the left is Fisher's cottage, and that was where you paid for your petrol and other spare parts, oil etc.

A Holiday Let in Pocklington like no other

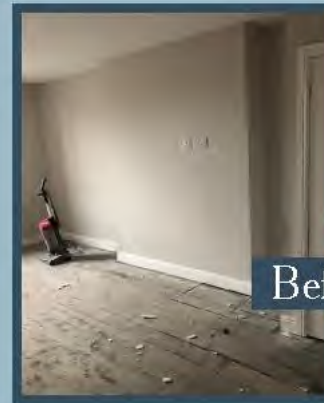

We've been very busy with a wonderful refurbishment project in Pocklington, situated on George Street – a double fronted property now available for rental.

A project that has been an absolute joy to work on where I have created individual room schemes whilst knitting the whole space together to create a cohesive and luxury rental destination.

Its all about showcasing the transformations we've made to the space - including some exciting sneak peeks at the finished product!

Here at Grandad's Shed, every project follows a very similar plan. We start by soaking up the space and really getting to know your goals for the project. Then it's onto pen and paper to pull together a mood board and plan. If we're working together throughout the project, we'll be on hand to manage orders, deliveries and key design decisions throughout the process. Then comes everyone's favourite part: the finishing touches. The lights go in, the blinds go up and the accessories get placed in their new homes.

In this exciting Holiday Let project, each bedroom has its own name and a theme to drive each design. To create a cohesive feel through the whole space, we're threading elements of natural materials which also tie a thread between the room themes. When it comes to the individual space, we have had lots of fun being extra creative to the individual brief.

Before

Coast Bedroom

Coast is a space to epitomise the stunning East Yorkshire coastline. The scheme uses playful colours with a dreamy 'seaweed' wall art, seahorses and seashells, and furnished with our Beaumont furniture range, a classic fresh white styling with sculptured corners. You'll definitely feel the fresh, relaxing feeling of the seaside when you enter the room.
